

What is the NAMI Connection Recovery Support Group Program?

NAMI Connection is a recovery support group program that offers respect, understanding, encouragement and hope. NAMI Connection groups are:

- Free and confidential
- Designed to connect, encourage, and support participants using a structured support group model
- Led by trained facilitators living in recovery themselves

NAMI of Fairfield County, the local organization of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, offers two NAMI Connection Recovery Support Groups in the Fairfield County area.

- 3rd Tuesday of the Month at 6:30pm
 - 1663 E. Main Street, Lancaster, OH (please enter through door at front of building closest to the street)
 - Contact: Jeana Johnson (740) 277-6125
- Every Wednesday at 6pm – starting 8/1/18
 - 111 S. Broad St., Lancaster, OH - (Same building as ADAMH and United Way, enter using the door at the back of the building, off alley, and follow signs)
 - Contact: Sheri Perry (740) 422-9606 for more information

Participant Perspectives

“NAMI Connection has made me realize that I can truly feel comfortable around my peers and I really needed that feeling!”

“NAMI Connection is the promise of what is and what can be in our lives.”
