

Thank you for your interest in learning more about becoming a member of the Fairfield County Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health (ADAMH) Board!

You do not have to become an instant expert about mental health and substance use disorder administration, prevention, treatment, and recovery supports. In fact, your personal values provide more guidance to the Board in its complex functions of planning for the future. With the myriad of details of day-to-day operations that staff members handle, Board members provide leadership and decision making on policy issues that have long-term impact. Board members speak with a single voice — policy statements voted upon by the full Board — that directs Board staff on what to do but not the details of how to do it. Here is an overview of the Board:
